Complaints Procedure

Grayshott C of E Controlled Primary School

Rationale

This policy is intended to set out how the school will deal with general complaints. Parents should feel able to express their views in the full knowledge that they will be dealt with fairly.

It is not intended to cover those aspects of school life where the law sets specific complaints procedures i.e. admissions, exclusions, complaints about the delivery of the National Curriculum and the provision of collective worship and religious education. Parents who are not satisfied with an LEA's decision about special needs assessments may appeal to the SEN Tribunal. Further details about these procedures are available in other documents.

Aims

- An accessible and easily understood procedure for complaints.
- Encourage parents to express their views at the earliest opportunity, through the appropriate channels.
- To aid communication between parents and school.

Whether a complaint is made informally or formally, all parties should ensure details are only known to those involved in investigating the complaint. Parents should be assured that making a complaint will not adversely affect their child.

Guidelines

1) Stage 1: The First Contact: Dealing with Concerns and Complaints Informally

- a) The vast majority of concerns and complaints can be resolved informally. There are many occasions where concerns are resolved straight away through the class teacher or school secretary, Headteacher or chair of governors depending on the nature of the complaint.
- b) If the person first contacted cannot deal with the matter immediately, s/he makes a clear note of the date, name, contact address or phone number and the issue raised.
- c) Any member of staff will know how to refer, if necessary, to the person with responsibility for the particular issue raised by the parent. S/he will check later to make sure the referral has been successful. Complaints made informally to governors will be referred to the relevant member of staff or to the chairman where appropriate.
- d) On certain major issues, the Headteacher may decide to deal with concerns directly at this stage.
- e) If the complaint relates to the Headteacher, the parent is advised to contact the Chair of the Governing Body.

- f) The person dealing with the concern makes sure that the parent is clear what action (if any) or monitoring of the situation has been agreed, putting this in writing only if this seems the best way of making things clear.
- g) Where no satisfactory solution has been found parents are asked if they wish their concern to be considered further. If so they are given clear information, both orally and in writing, about how to make a formal complaint and about any independent advice available to them.

2) Stage 2: Formal Complaint to the Headteacher

- a) When a formal complaint is made, it will be acknowledged in writing within 3 working days.
- b) The Headteacher (or designate) acknowledges the complaint orally or in writing within 3 working days of receiving the written complaint. The acknowledgment gives a brief explanation of the school's complaints procedure and a target date for providing a response to the complaint. This should normally be within 10 working days: if this proves impossible, a letter is sent explaining the reason for the delay and giving a revised target date.
- c) The Headteacher (or designate) provides an opportunity for the complainant to meet with them to supplement any information provided previously. It is made clear to the complainant that if they wish they may be accompanied to any meeting by a friend, relative, representative, or advocate who can speak on their behalf, and asked if they have any special requirements the school needs to be aware of e.g. wheelchair access, signing etc.
- d) If necessary, the Headteacher (or designate) should interview witnesses and take statements from those involved. If the complaint centres around a pupil, the pupil should also be interviewed. Pupils would normally be interviewed with parents/guardians present. In some situations, circumstances may prevent this e.g. where this would seriously delay the investigation of a serious/urgent complaint or where particular circumstances mean that a pupil has specifically said they would prefer that parents or guardians were not involved. In such circumstances another member of staff with whom the pupil feels comfortable should be asked to attend. If a member of staff is complained against, the needs of that person should be borne in mind.
- e) The Headteacher (or designate) keeps written records of meetings, telephone conversations, and other documentation.
- f) Once all the relevant facts have been established, the Headteacher (or designate) should then produce a written response to the complainant, or may wish to meet the complainant to discuss /resolve the matter directly.
- g) A written response includes a full explanation of the decisions and the reasons for it. Where appropriate, this includes what action the school will take to resolve the complaint. The complainant is advised that should s/he wish to take the complaint further s/he should notify the Chair of the Governing Body within 5 weeks of receiving the outcome letter.
- h) If the complaint is against the action of a Headteacher, or if the headteacher has been very closely involved at stage 1, the Governors Complaints Panel should carry out all the stage 2 procedures.

Stage 3: Formal Complaint to Governors

- a) Upon receipt of a written request by the complainant for the complaint to proceed to stage 3, the procedures outlined below should be followed.

- b) The Clerk to the Governing Body should write to the complainant to acknowledge receipt of the written request. The acknowledgement should inform the complainant that the complaint is to be heard by three members of the school's Governing Body within 20 working days of receiving the complaint. The letter should also explain that the complainant has the right to submit any further documents relevant to the complaint. These must be received in time for the documents to be received by the full members.
- c) The Clerk to the Governors should arrange to convene a Governors' Complaints Panel elected from members of the Governing Body.
- d) The Chair/Vice-Chair will ensure that the complaint is heard by the Panel within 20 working days of receiving the letter in 3. 1. All relevant correspondence regarding the complaint should be given to each panel member as soon as the composition of the Panel is confirmed. If the correspondence is extensive, the Chair of the Panel should prepare a thorough summary for sending to panel members.
- e) The Chair/Vice-Chair will write and inform the complainant, Headteacher, any relevant witnesses, and members of the Panel at least 5 working days in advance, of the date, time and place of the meeting. The notification to the complainant should also inform him/her of the right to be accompanied to the meeting by a friend/advocate/interpreter. The letter will also explain how the meeting will be conducted and the complainant's right to submit further written evidence to the Panel.
- f) If either party wishes to introduce previously undisclosed evidence or witnesses, it is in the interests of natural justice to adjourn the meeting so that the other side has time to consider and respond to the new evidence.
- g) The meeting will allow for the complainant to explain their complaint and the Headteacher to explain the school's response the Headteacher to question the complainant about the complaint and the complainant to question the Headteacher and/or other members of staff about the school's response.
- h) Panel members to have the opportunity to question both the complainant and the Headteacher any party to have the right to call witnesses (subject to the approval of the Chair) and all parties having the right to question all the witnesses final statements by both the complainant and the Headteacher.
- i) The Chair of the Panel will explain to the complainant and the Headteacher that the panel will now consider its decision, and a written decision will be sent to both parties within 15 working days. The complainant, Headteacher, other members of staff and witnesses will then leave.
- j) The panel will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented and (a) reach a unanimous, or at least a majority, decision on the complaint and (b) and decide upon the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint and (c) where appropriate, suggest recommended changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not happen again.
- k) A written statement outlining the decision of the Panel must be sent to the complainant and Headteacher. The letter to the complainant should explain whether a further appeal can be made, and if so, to whom.

Responsibilities

This policy is to be:

Monitored by the Headteacher and Governing Body.

GENERAL COMPLAINTS POLICY (STAFF APPENDIX)

Guidelines for dealing with concerns and complaints informally

Parents must feel able to raise concerns about the school without any formality, either in person, by telephone or in writing. On occasion it may be appropriate, for someone to act on behalf of a parent.

At first it may be unclear whether a parent is asking a question or expressing an opinion rather than making a complaint. A parent may want a preliminary discussion about an issue to help decide whether he or she wishes to take it further.

Parents should have an opportunity for discussion of their concern with the appropriate member of staff or the Chair of Governors, who clarifies with the parent the nature of the concern, and reassures them that the school wants to hear about it. The member of staff or Chair of Governors may explain to the parent how the situation happened. It can be helpful to identify at this point what sort of outcome the parent is looking for.

Formal complaint to the Headteacher

As Headteachers have responsibility for the day-to-day running of their schools, they have responsibility for the implementation of a complaints system, including the decision about their own involvement at various stages. One of the reasons for having various "stages" in a complaints procedure is to reassure complainants that their grievance is being heard by more than one person. Headteachers should make arrangements to ensure that their involvement will not predominate at every stage of a particular complaint. For example arrangements may be made for other staff to deal with parents concerns at stage 1, while the Headteacher deals with contacts with parents at stage 2. Even at that stage the Headteacher may designate another member of staff to collect some of the information from the various parties involved. In some cases, Headteachers may be so involved at stage 1 that stage 2 has to be carried out by the Chair of the Governing Body.

Formal Complaint to Governors

- 1) Complaints only rarely reach this formal level, but it is important that governing bodies are prepared to deal with them when necessary. At this stage the school should seek advice from the LEA. This can provide a useful "outside view" on the issues.
- 2) It is important that this review not only be independent and impartial but that it be seen as so. Therefore, individual complaints should not be considered by the full governing body as serious conflicts of interest can arise; for example, in exceptional circumstances a complaint may result in disciplinary action against a member of staff, and governors might be required to give an unprejudiced hearing to an appeal by the member of staff concerned. Similarly some governors might have previous knowledge of the problem which led to the complaint and would be unable to give fair unbiased consideration to the issue.

- 3) Many complaints are inevitably seen by parents as being "against" a particular member of staff and their actions. However, all complaints which reach this stage will have done so because the complainant has not been satisfied with the Headteacher's response at the earlier stage of the procedure, and it may be appropriate for the Governing Body to consider that the complaint is against the school rather than against the member of staff whose actions led to the original complaint.
- 4) It may be necessary for the Governing Body to appoint reserves to the Panel to ensure that three governors are available to carry out their task within the set time. The Panel members should be governors who have had no prior involvement with the complaint. If s/he has not previously been involved, the Chair of the Governing Body should chair the Panel; otherwise the Vice-Chair should do it. Generally it is not appropriate for the Headteacher to have a place on the panel. Governors will want to bear in mind the advantages of having a parent (who is also a governor) on the Panel. Governors will also want to be sensitive to issues of race, gender and religious affiliation.
- 5) The Chair/Vice-Chair of the Governing Body should invite the Headteacher to attend the Panel meeting and prepare a written report for the Panel in response to the complaint. The Headteacher may also invite members of staff directly involved in matters raised by the complainant to respond in writing or in person to the complaint. Any relevant documents including the Headteacher's report should be received by all concerned - including the complainant - at least 5 working days prior to the meeting.
- 6) The involvement of staff other than the Headteacher is subject to the discretion of the Chair of the Panel.
- 7) It is the responsibility of the Chair of the Panel to ensure that the meeting is properly minuted and that all communications are treated with discretion and confidentiality.
- 8) The aim of the meeting should be to resolve the complaint and achieve reconciliation between the school and the complainant. However, it has to be recognised that sometimes it may only be possible to establish facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has at least been taken seriously.
- 9) The Panel should remember that many parents are unused to dealing with groups of people in formal situations and may feel inhibited when speaking to the Panel. It is therefore recommended that the Chair of the Panel ensures that the proceedings are as informal as possible.
- 10) The school should ensure that a copy of all correspondence and notes are kept on file in the school's records. These records should be kept separately from the pupil's personal records.

Dissemination of the policy:

- A copy of the ratified policy will be uploaded to school network. (Clerk's responsibility). This allows all staff access to the same together with the facility to comment upon the policy. All such comments will be taken into account at the next review of this policy.
- The new policy will be drawn to the staff's attention at the next staff meeting. (Headteacher's responsibility).
- The policy will be uploaded to School Website and therefore accessible to all governors at any time. (Clerk's responsibility).
- The policy will be placed in the Governors' Statutory Policies File which is kept in the Headteacher's office at the school. (Clerk's responsibility to send to school's admin officer).
- The policy will be placed on the school website in PDF format so that it may be downloaded by all with internet access. (Clerk's responsibility to send to web-site designer/administrator).
- Paper copies will be provided by the school office on request. A large number of paper copies will incur a photocopying charge.
